Fur Harvesters Auction Ranch Fox Auction Report - February 19th 2010 Auction

The sale was held at American Legend Co-operative (ALC) in Seattle, Washington. A record number of buyers from all major markets attended this three day sale which featured the year's largest offering of American Legends, Black Glama Mink and Fur Harvesters Auction Inc premier collection of northern wild fur and ranch fox.

First on the block was size 0. This size sold 95% with most grades advancing 5 to 10% above evaluation. Next up was x-pale 00. This group saw resistance to our valuations. We hung firm to our presale values which in-turn resulted in most of the 00 x-pales remaining unsold. FHA recognizes the ranchers need for clearances, however, we believe if we sold the x-pales below our values it would have negatively affected the remaining lots of 00. Price levels improved for 00 Pales and we sold at, or very close to, our presale values. 00 Mediums sold at or slightly above values. Darks in all sizes continue to struggle. Size 000 were 99% sold at advancing levels

Demand was more selective for cross, mutation and ranch reds. Our small collection of Blue and Shadow fox saw strong demand. Overall, this was one of our finest collections of Ranch Fox and we would like to thank our ranch fox shippers who made this quality offering possible.
